

Engineering & Contracting Major Company
via adva consult - is looking for a « Planning manager » (m/f)
Reference EC675

ABOUT THE COMPANY

Our client is a leading Engineering, Procurement and Contracting company. Its main activities consist of design, engineering, procurement, project management, manufacturing of key components, installation and after sales services.

The company is focusing on niche activities, organized in business units and active in various end markets like: Cooling Systems, Heat Exchangers, Pollution Control,...

THE POSITION

Objectives

The Planning Manager is responsible for the consolidation of the several project planning's managed by EMEA offices (Belgium and France), enabling the view about resources allocation and capacity usage.

He will support the top management on taking strategic decisions regarding project execution, resources deployment and effective cost management.

Job description

- Traduce all contractual milestone inputs over a P6 planning representation, respecting the strategic inputs from management and efficient resources deployment.
- Support to the EMEA Project Management teams in order to develop valuable plannings
- Ensure the consolidation of all EMEA Project plannings, supervising the regular update of each document by respective Project Managers, Engineering leaders, Supply Chain and site activities.
- Work together with management to properly identify and allocate resources into Project operations
- Support to the Sales Department to identify potential resource constraints on future Projects
- Support to the IT department in the implementation of the Business Process Tools
- Propose solutions for resources use optimization signaling in advance the eventual lack of resources on a given period or on the contrary expected idle periods.

The position may be based in France (Paris region) or in Belgium (Walloon Brabant), depending of applicant preferences.

PROFILE

Qualifications & Experience

- Bachelor / Master in Engineering
- At least 7 years experience in a construction or industrial projects company
- Experience in EPC project planning
- Affinity with Primavera P6 planning tools

Personality

- Rigorous mind,
- Very good organization / planning capabilities
- Team minded
- Good communication and negotiation skills
- Leadership
- Problem Solver
- Business focus
- Problem Solver
- Creativity (able to think "out of the box")
- Open for change
- Analytic ("no nonsense")
- Ready for travelling (short stays)

Languages

- Fluent in English
- Very good command in French
- Other languages are assets

OFFER

The Company offers motivating functions in an international growing company with a dynamic culture, a stimulating working environment, real career opportunities, an attractive salary and other fringe benefits.

APPLICATION

If you are interested and if you feel yourself motivated by such a challenge, please send your CV and your introduction letter to adva consult, attention of Eric Croisy, preferably by e-mail:

eric.croisy@adva-consult.com

Please mention the reference EC675. Your application will be treated in full confidentiality.

adva consult offices: Chaussée de Mons 5a, bte B1
 B-1400 Nivelles
 Belgium
 info@adva-consult.com
 www.adva-consult.com